Foreword

As you turn the pages of this book, it is the hope of the SCRIBE staff that the flood gates of memory may open for you and that you will be a little better able to recall the merry times, the studying, the classmates, and all the things that went to make the wonderful school year of 1958-59. As the years run their course and time works its tricks on us all, we hope you will turn these pages and recapture the "good old days" at Marlette School.

Dedication

ALFRED G. AMUNDSEN
Marlette Community School Superintendent, 1948-59

We dedicate this book to Mr. Amundsen in recognition of his contributions to education in the Marlette Community. As we profit by our education, let us remember his part in guiding and shaping the institution which has made it possible. We hope his memories of us are as pleasant as our memories of him.

THE HOOSIER SCHOOLMASTER

The young, inexperienced school master quells the boys in the school room and earns their respect by pluck and ready wit. He falls in love with the bound girl; that leads to complications.

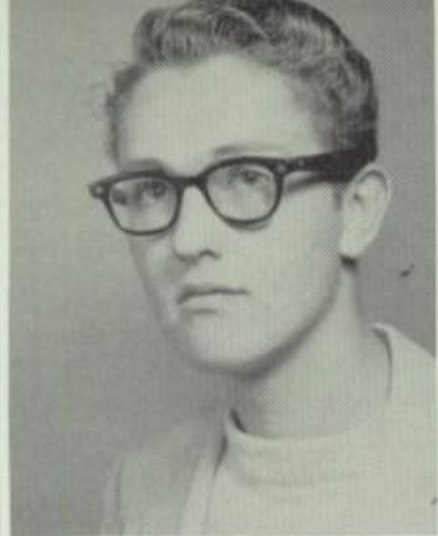

A robbery is committed at a local farm. With help from Dr. Small, a smooth villian, and Granny Sanders, a witch doctor, the plot thickens and suspicion is cast on the schoolmaster.

Just in the nick of time, "General Andrew Jackson" clears the schoolmaster of the crime.

Junior Play

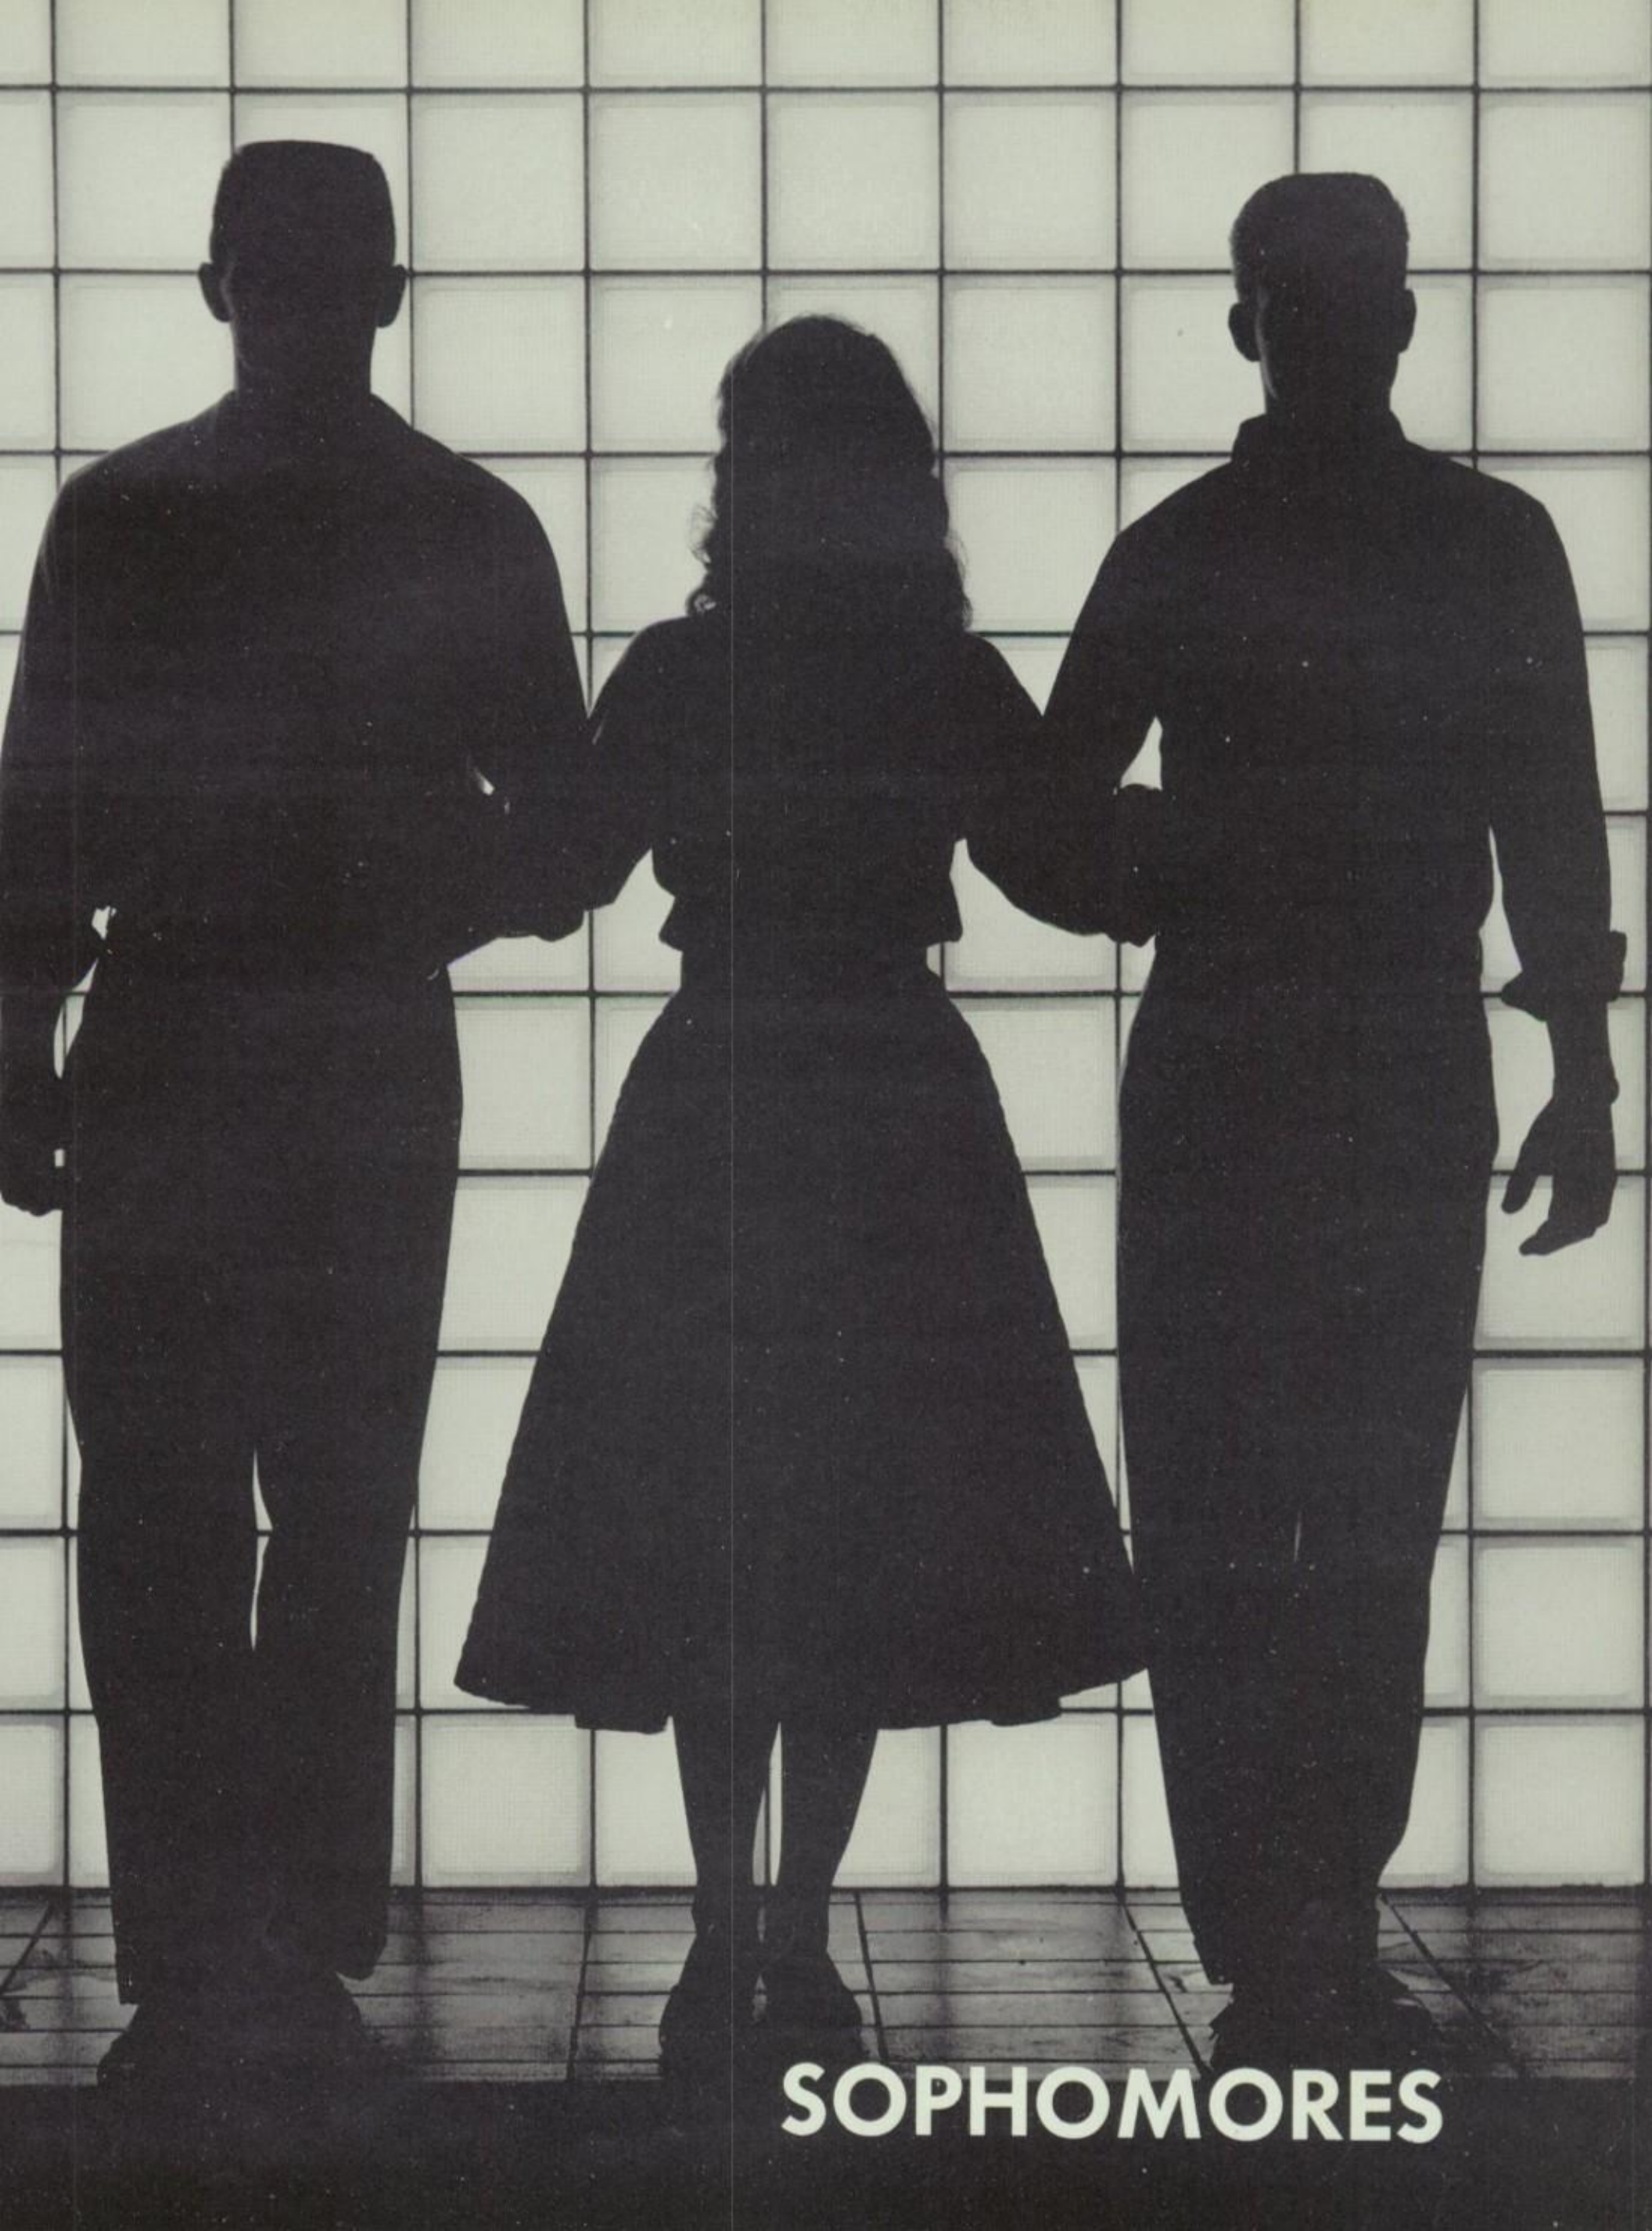

MAUDIE AND THE OPPOSITE SEX

"Maudie and the Opposite Sex" is a comedy which reveals the problem of the average teenage girl going steady--how to keep him steady.

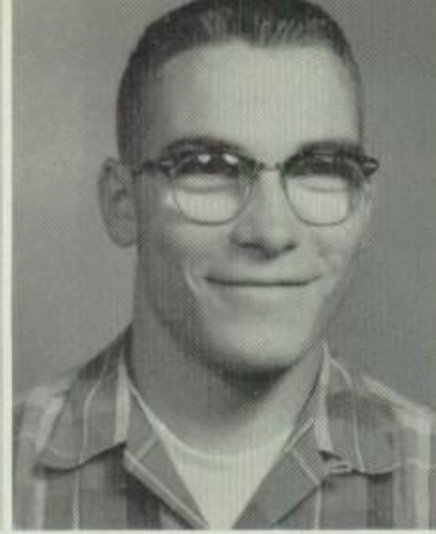

Dad and mom are concerned with what they consider to be an unwise degree of infatuation on the part of their daughter. They take Maudie to a summer resort to get her away from Dave's influence.

Maudie uses her keen mind and feminine intuition to create a situation, confusing but not too amusing to her parents, which makes them see the going steady with Dave is not so bad after all.

High Salesmen

Snaps

A high-contrast black and white photograph. In the foreground, a person is shown in silhouette, sitting on a folding chair. They are holding a large, dark, curved object, possibly a piece of fabric or a large hat, which they are looking at intently. The background is a wall made of a grid of square tiles, which are illuminated from behind, creating a bright, glowing effect. The floor is also tiled. The overall composition is stark and graphic.

Although this year's Band wasn't the largest in recent years it was most certainly the best. Led by Drum Major Dan O'Shea, assisted by Majorettes Sharon Russell, Anne Dale, Carolyn McCrea, and Mary Kay Bloss. The band had a fine football marching season. Audiences were highly appreciative of its near flawless marching and playing from the first game to the last.

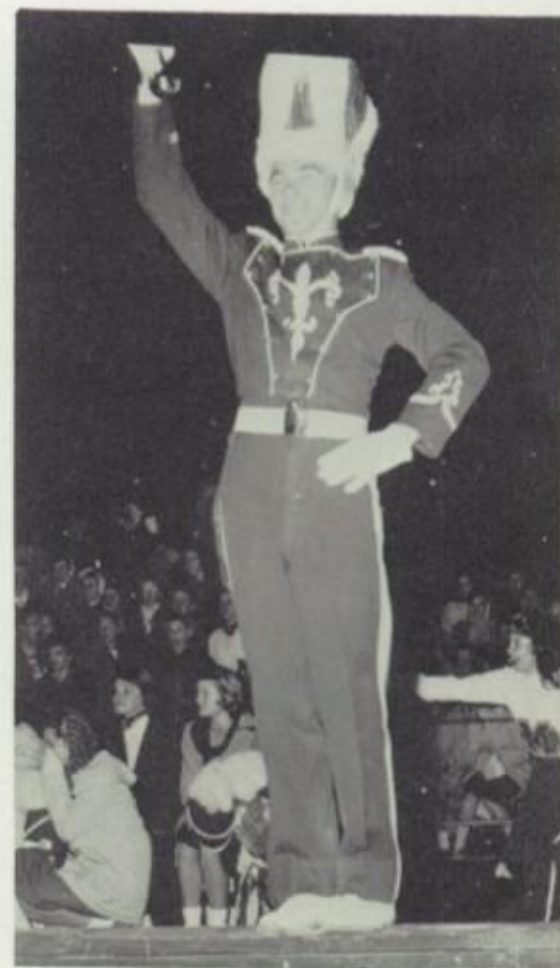

Getting into concert work with a Christmas Concert and continuing through District, County and State Festivals, the Band further reinforced its rating as one of the best in the area and indeed on a par with most bands throughout the state.

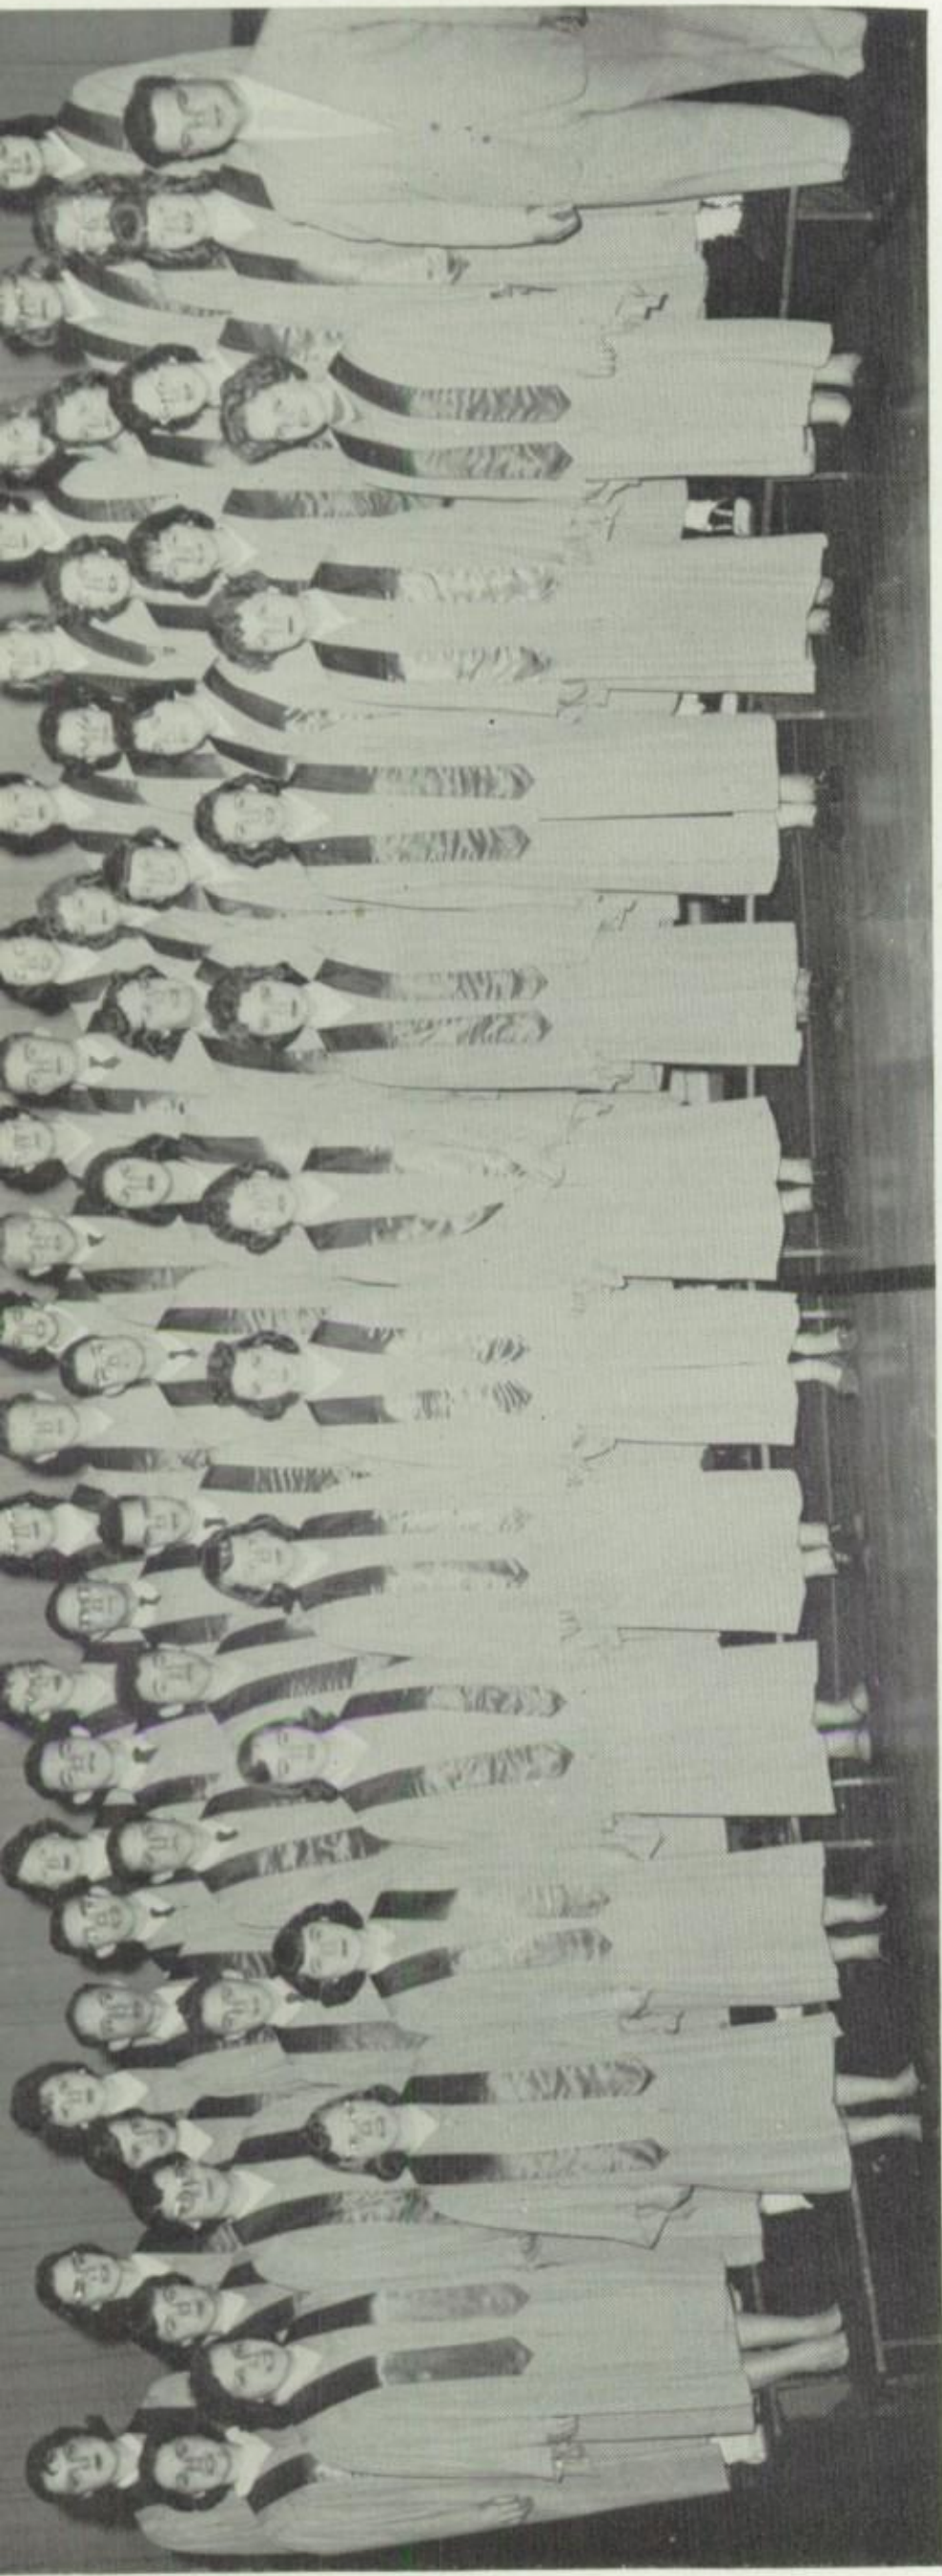

Ratings of Superior were earned at the District Band Festival, with the judges being unanimous in their opinion.

At the State Festival, the band earned a rating of Excellent from all four judges as a result of its near flawless performance.

This group of people have learned the lesson that co-operating, teamwork, individual practice, and unity of purpose can result in great things. Also that things worthwhile do not come easily.

This year's officers are: President-Dan O'Shea; Veep-Marilyn Vizard; Secretary-Dianne Atkins; Treasurer-Sharon Russell.

The Marlette High School Choir had a most successful season this year. Things got off to a good start with their performance at the Regional M.E.A. Conference in Saginaw, on October 24. Their Christmas Concert, with the Concert Band, drew a very large crowd and highly favorable comments. Their Spring Concert, May 10, also proved to be a huge success.

The Choir did an outstanding job of representing our school at festivals. All three adjudicators at the District III Festival at Lakeville gave the choir a first division rating, "Superior." This entitled the choir to attend the State Massed Chorus Festival at M.S.U. in May.

Many ambitious singers earned their letters this year by performing in a solo or ensemble activity, by taking an audition, and by passing a written test.

With the singing of "Jesus, Our Lord, We Adore Thee" and "Hear My Prayer" at Baccalaureate on May 31 the High School Choir drew a very eventful year to a close.
